

Death and Dying Research Group Seminar Series 2017

The Open
University

The Death and Dying Research Group are hosting a series of seminars to be held monthly at the Open University, Milton Keynes.

Examples of topics include:

- Global Interventions at End of Life
- Changing Practices and Rituals
  - Children and Young Adults
  - Old Age, Dementia and Frailty
- Pre-Birth, Still Birth and Neo-Natal Deaths

Monthly interdisciplinary seminars based at the Open University in Milton Keynes.

Featuring leading academics and professionals working in the death and dying field.

Time for interaction and open discussion

Suitable for anyone interested in this fascinating area of study

Please note these seminars may be recorded.
To find out more on teaching and research at the OU on
Death and Dying please visit:
<http://wels.open.ac.uk/research/death-dying-and-bereavement>

For more information and to book your free place please contact wels-research-admin@open.ac.uk